Contact Ideas for World Fellowship Recipients

1. Send cards – welcoming, holidays, birthdays, or “just thinking of you” cards. This can be done at chapter meetings.
2. Invite to meeting or chapter function.
3. Invite to a home of a member.
4. Take them out to eat.
5. Take them for drives to acquaint them with their new community.
6. Send them “a gift or care packages”.
7. Email them on a monthly basis.
8. Use Skype to attend a meeting, if the recipient lives too far from your area.
9. Chapters could adopt one or more recipients or assign a WF recipient to each chapter member.
10. State organizations could assign recipients to chapters.
11. Donate needed items for their dorm room.
12. Bring them a meal.
13. Invite them to attend a state organization, regional or international conference and help with cost of travel, room or registration fees.
14. Keep members aware by sharing a short WF committee report using WF publications, articles from the DKG News, correspondence from the recipients or a PowerPoint presentation (Check with International).
