Entrance Requirements

- To enter, a student must attend a Wisconsin school and be in grades 3-12 this school year. Books must be entered at the current grade level.

Book Requirements

- The book must be written and illustrated by one student.
- The book should be an original fiction or an enhanced personal narrative piece with well-developed characters, setting, and plot.
- Poetry is not accepted.
- Illustrations can be original drawings, collages, computer art, paintings or photographs and must be incorporated into the text. (Not just before or after the story.)
- Sources for non-original downloaded or scanned artwork must be documented.
- Stories may be handwritten or typed computer printouts. Someone other than the author may do the typing and editing. Please proofread the book for errors.
- Books should have an illustrated or designed cover and a separate title page just as professionally printed books do. The title page must include the book title and author's name.
- Books should be securely bound.
- Each entry must include an Official Contest Entry Form that is attached to the inside back cover of the book.
- The maximum number of words are as follows:

Grade 3	500 Words	Grades 6-8	1,000 Words
Grades 4 and 5	600 Words	Grades 9-12	1,600 Words

Judges have the right to disqualify any books that do not meet the requirements in any category.

Bilingual Spanish and Spanish Entries

- All of the requirements for standard entries apply.
- The book must be written and illustrated by one student.
- It may be written so it contains both Spanish and English text for the Bilingual entries. The author's creativity may allow for both languages to be used together. Spanish entries are written in just the Spanish language.
- Students will write based on their knowledge of Spanish and/or English. Google Translate or other translators are not allowed.

Judging at the Chapter Level

- All books are submitted to the local DKG Chapter for chapter level judging by February 2, 2024.
- The local chapter will set dates for their judging.
- The local chapter will send the finalists to the state level competition.

State Literary Competition Entrance Requirements

- Winning books at the chapter level will be forwarded to the state competition by the local literary committee on/ or before March 4, 2024.
- Individual entrants are not allowed to send their books directly to the state level competition. If you need help finding a chapter, email wsolitcomp@gmail.com for instructions for submitting the entry.
