

Wisconsin State's Mary Jo Nettesheim Literary Competition

Mary Jo Nettesheim led the development of the Wisconsin State Literary Competition, which began in the 1980's. The goal of the competition is to encourage students to use their writing skills and artistic talents to create a book with a new and exciting storytelling experience.

Key Requirements:

- Participants must be Wisconsin residents.
- Applications and printed book must be completed by a single student author and submitted to a local chapter for review.
- Text may be Illustrated fiction or enhanced personal narrative, written in English or Bilingual Spanish.
- Books must be the student's own original work.

Please contact us for competition applications, detailed information on the nearest chapter, and complete rules.
